

Dear Parents and Carers,

The first full week of learning in 2024 is now behind us. The children have settled back into being at school, and I have noticed that the days are starting to get longer, the mornings brighter. We do have some children who refuse to wear their coats at playtime and lunchtime on these cold and frosty days. Please, remind your children to make sure they wear their coats, even if they are playing football.

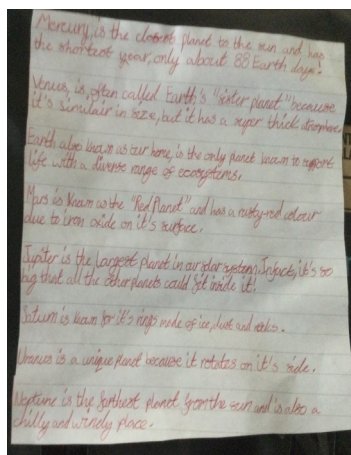

On Thursday, we held our termly Parent Forum meeting. 50 parents attended. Mrs Shanker spoke about the parent newsletter, Ms Anthony reminded parents about the importance of school attendance and informing school when your child is absent. She introduced Franco (from Brent Young Carers), who spoke about their role in supporting children, who take on a caring role in the home.

Ms Trenchfield concluded the meeting with a presentation on Special Educational Needs. Thank you to all the parents who attended. I hope you found the forum informative and useful.

Our Year 6 pupils went on trips to the RAF museum. This was preparation for their English writing curriculum over the next few weeks. You will find a write up about the trip in next weeks newsletter.

These pictures are a representation of some outstanding project work that Y5 have been undertaking. In Science, the children are learning about the solar system this half term. To prepare them for this topic, the teacher set them a homework project over the winter break to research the topic. I was pleased and amazed to see the standard of their work.

Thank you to the parents, who supported their children to complete their holiday homework.

The Year 2 teachers have asked me to remind Y2 parents to use the Active Learning/Bug Club platform for reading with their children. Ms Butler and Ms Ahmed are offering a workshop for those parents who struggle to access the platform. This workshop will be on Wednesday, 24th January, on Zoom. The time for this will be confirmed on class dojo on Monday.

Next week, as part of our RE (religious education) curriculum we have two speakers from the Faith and Belief Forum coming in to our school to deliver a 1 hour workshop for pupils from Y5 and Y6. If you are a parent of a child in Y5 or Y6, please read the information emailed to you. It provides you with further information about the organisation. Our class teachers will remain in the session whilst they are taking place.

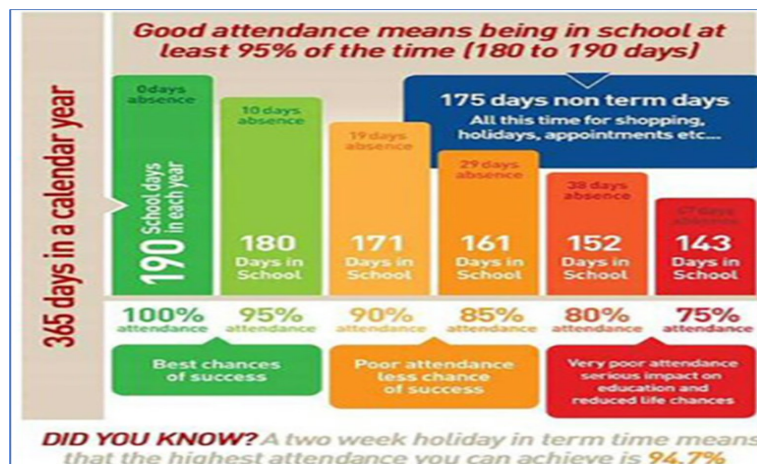

I wish you all a restful weekend.

Kind regards
Mrs Shanker
